POÈME DU FEU

pour orchestre d'harmonie

IDA GOTKOVSKY

Ces quatre doubles croches par temps doivent être exécutées très rythmiquement. Elles sont issues pour la première fois de la deuxième mesure du premier mouvement

1) de la mesure de trois mesures avant A pour la deuxième

2) de la mesure de trois mesures avant A pour la deuxième

3) de la mesure de G au quatrième temps pour la troisième

Ces doubles croches doivent être jouées rythmiquement en attendant toutes les autres mesures avant A.

Tout ceci est très important sinon toute l'exécution sera en contradiction avec l'esprit et le souffle rythmique de l'œuvre.

D'après cette belle page pourrait très bien supporter un argument pour une exécution dansée.

En tant que Chef de la Musique de l'Air, je tiens à exprimer toute ma réprobation contre l'éditeur IDA GOTKOVSKY pour sa contribution à la confection d'un vrai répertoire pour l'orchestre d'Harmonie. Cet orchestre particulier et parfois méconnu, possède des richesses insoupçonnées. Ces œuvres magnifiques sont désormais inscrites au répertoire de la Musique de l'Air.

Le Chef de Musique des Armées
Commandant ALBERT FASCE

De „Ode aan het Vuur“ van Ida Gotkovski is waarschijnlijk één van de meest succesvolle originele composities voor harmonieorkest dat er is. Dit werk heeft in verschillende edities gedigiteerd, met name in Budapest. Het is opvallend dat alle uitvoeringen met ongewone gesteldrift worden onthaald. Op zijn beurt kan ik mij niet voorstellen dat een goed dirigent die als bijzonder een enthousiaste reactie toeweegt: dit is opmerkelijk.

Deze „Ode aan het Vuur“ is een wert voor blaasinstrumenten. Toch is het niet bijzonder moeilijk, maar de eerst van het stuk vraagt om een exacte voorbereiding en uitvoering, met een zekere uitbreidingsduur.

Het eerste belangrijke moment is dat de sleutel tot de ritmiek „G“-delen is van het stuk. Het eerste deel moet strikt in de maoen uitgevoerd, met nadrukkelijke accenten en articulaties. De fortissimo en verrytiging moet worden gehanteerd, maar niet te veel.

Een zeker inzicht is nodig bij het laatste interpretatie van de zestiende die op twee minuten moeten worden bescheiden: ritmisch en harmonisch. De ritme moet uit de ritmische geest en methodiek van de overgangsmaat.

Het ritmisch karakter van de zestiende moet eigenlijk pas goed duidelijk wanneer men de vier zestienden uit de maoen kan horen. Datzelfde zestiende moet in een zeer ritmisch te worden uitgevoerd. Voor het eerst kunnen we voor:

1. in de tweede maat van het eerste deel

2. in een driekwartsemaat voor A voor het tweede deel

3. in de maat G, in vierkwartsemaat, voor het derde deel

4. in de maat G, in vierkwartsemaat, voor het derde deel

De zestienden moeten goed ritmisch worden gespeeld; in de latere delen van het stuk moet dit echter iets worden veranderd.

Dit alles is van groot belang, omdat anders de uitvoering in tegenspraak zou zijn met geest en uit uitvoering in de maoen. De dirigent moet de verschillende ritmische en harmonische aspecten van de zestiende met begesterde ovaties opnemen. Er komt opeens recht selten voor, dat de Muzikant zelfredzaam is en alleen de Muzikant zelfredzaam is als auch beim Publiek aangeeft. Daarom kan ik u niet meer toeestaan.

Dit heerlijke Werk is in bemoedigerende Weise für Blasorchester geschrieben.

Die ritmiek is moeilijk, das technisch keine großen Schwierigkeiten bereitet, verlangt eine große Genauigkeit und Präzision.

Der erste Satz stellt den Schlüssel zum Verständnis der Ritmik dar, der in allen Teilen genauso Werth ist.

Das Tempo des ersten Satzes ist metronomisch genau einzuhalten, eine sorgfältige Berücksichtigung der Akzentuierung ist unbedingt erforderlich.

Alle Fortissimo-Stellen müssen durchdringen nicht übertreiben werden.

Bei der kleinen „Lie“ handelt es sich um die Ausführung der zweiten Seite, die auf zweiter Seite vorzunehmen ist: Rhythmischi müssen disjungen gespielt werden, die sich aus der rythmischen Genesis ergeben, und metrisch disjungen, die sich auf den Melodiefuß beziehen.

Um den rythmischen Ursprung der Sechzehntnoten zu verstehen, muss man von den Sechzehntnoten des Stücks ausgehen. Diese vier Sechzehntnoten müssen sehr rythmisch gespielt werden, damit sich im Laufendermaßen abheben.

1. die zweite Maat des zweiten Takte des ersten Satzes,

2. die zweite Maat des zweiten Takte des ersten Satzes,

3. die zweite Maat des zweiten Takte des ersten Satzes,

4. die zweite Maat des zweiten Takte des ersten Satzes,

Die zweite Maat des zweiten Takte des ersten Satzes ist im Vordergrund, die anderen drei auf zweiter Seite vorzunehmen.

Um den Rythmus des zweiten Teiles zu verstehen, muss man die sechzehntnoten des zweiten Teiles des Stücks auswählen.

Als Komponist der Französischen Lieder schreibt Ida Gotkovsky für ihren Beitrag zu einem echten Repertoire für Blasorchester dankt. Dieses besondere und markant verankerte Orchester begeistert ungemein.

Diese hervorragende Werk gehört künftig zum Repertoire des Lufthafencorchesters.

Major Albert Fasse

The Poème du Feu by Madame Ida GOTKOVSKY is probably one of the original compositions for symphonic band which has been most successful in recent years. I have had to conduct this work at countless different occasions in Europe, in America, in Japan, and each performance was greeted by enthusiastic ovations. Moreover, it is quite rare in contemporary music to achieve in the short time available the effect of musicians in direct contact with the public. This is significant. This magnificent work is written remarkably for wind instruments.

There is no major technical difficulty, but the character of this work calls for meticulous placing and a certain orchestral glow. There is a „key“ to be found in the first movement, which reveals the rhythmic basis of this work. The metronome marking of the first movement should be absolutely respected, and proper interpretation of the accents and the articulations are imperative. The tempo of the second movement is not to be exaggerated. As far as the little „trick“ is concerned, this lies in the execution of the double crochets which should be considered in two ways: the first, a rhythmic one for those which are to be played by woodwind; the second, more melodic for those arising in passages.

Finally, to unveil the rhythmic origin of the double cro-ches, it is necessary to proceed by recurrence, starting from the four double crochets of the finale. These four double crochets must be executed very rhythmically in the different times. For the first, they arise:

1) from the second bar of the first movement

2) from the bar three bars before A for the second

3) from the bar from G to the fourth time for the third.

These double crochets must be played rhythmically, while diminishing, however, those three bars before A. At the end of the first movement, if these four double crochets will be in contradiction with the spirit and the rhythmic inspiration of the work.

Moreover, this beautiful work could very well support a band of broadcast music. As Head of Broadcast Music I must express all our gratitude to Madame GOTKOVSKY for her contribution to constituting a real repertoire for wind ensemble. This particular composition unprejudiced band possesses unsuspected riches.

This magnificent work is now in the repertoire of Musique de l'Air.
